Republican County Convention.

A Republican county convention will be held at the Court House in Grayling, on Tuesday, July 23, at 2 o'clock, P. M. for the purpose of electing delegates as follows: one delegate to the State Convention, to be held at Detroit, Aug. 13; one delegate to the Congressional Convention, to be held at Detroit, Aug. 13; two delegates to the Senatorial Convention 20th district to be called; and two delegates to the Local Representative District Convention to be called. Each township will be entitled to one delegate for every twenty votes, or fraction thereof.

O. PALMER.

CHAIRMAN CO. COM.

A. H. SWARTHOUT Sec.

Protection vs. Free Trade.

Brumby, of Pennsylvania, gives a homely argument in favor of protection. He says: "I remember very well, in my short lifetime, when I took a good cow to buy a good cook, I took a good cow with a well-knit figure and a bearing that was essentially military. He has greivous cooking stove and all the utensils necessary for a well-regulated kitchen. I and board somewhat sprinkled with worked for years as a watchmaker, and I remember well when it took a good horse to buy a good clock, and today the price of a good horse will set one up in the watch and clock business. Clocks for a dollar. A good horse is worth all the way from $250 to $21,000. Why, sir, it used to take my short lifetime, a whole lot to buy a saw. To-day you can buy the best of Boston's make for the price of a pound of butter when it took a pound of butter to buy a pound of milk. To-day you can buy a pound of milk with a quart of skimmed milk."

The East-Texas Gazette, says: We received a pleasant call a few days since from D. P. Markey, of Ogemaw county, a candidate for nomination as representative from this legislative district. He Markey is spoken of as a strong man, for a young one, in the republican ranks of his county. He is well known to the position would no doubt look well to the interests of the entire district.

News from every direction in the state, shows the most steady and strong growth of the boom for Gen. Alger for gubernatorial honors. Appreciating his worth and peculiar fitness for the position, we give the following brief sketch from the Alcona Register:
 Gen. R. A. Alger was born in Ohio February 27, 1836. His parents died when he was 11 years old, and for the next seven years he worked on a farm, getting some schooling at Richfield academy in the winters. Then he entered a law office, and in 1859 was admitted to the bar. Bad health caused him to relinquish his profession, and in 1861 he moved to Grand Rapids to go into the lumber business there. In the same year he entered the Second Michigan cavalry. Next year he was wounded at the battle of Booneville, Miss., and soon after promoted to be major of the regiment. October 16, 1862, he was appointed lieutenant colonel of the Sixth Michigan cavalry, and June 2, 1863, colonel of the Fifth Michigan cavalry, his regiment being a part of Custer's famous cavalry brigade. July 6, 1863 he was wounded at the battle of Boonesborough, Md. Altogether he took part in 65 battles and skirmishes. He was brevetted brigadier-general and major-general "for gallant and meritorious services in the field." In appearance he is tall, with a well-knit figure and a bearing essentially military. He has greivous blue eyes, brown hair, mustache and beard somewhat sprinkled with gray.
 There is no name in Michigan to-day that has power to kindle a greater flame of enthusiasm within the breasts of old soldiers than that of General Russell A. Alger—a veteran tried and true, a general gallant and brave; nor that braver or gallanter which inspires to "reckless action," but which counts the preservation of country and home as the chief worth and glory of the republic, and calls out the true patriotism of humanity in the most systematic and yet forcible defense of its aims and purposes as affecting the highest good of all citizens. Gen Alger was indeed and in truth a prominent figure in the late war, and his services to his country were highly meritorious from first to last.

The Charlevoix Sentinel is out in a strong article favoring Senator Archibald Butler for Lieut. Governor. The republican ranks of his county. He is well known to the position would no doubt look well to the interests of the entire district.

REPORT OF BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.

SPECIAL SESSION, JUNE 10, 1884.

Board met in the afternoon pursuant to adjournment. G. W. Love in the chair.

Roll called and quorum present. Moved by Supervisor Stecker that the bill of Dr. Kenwarden be taken from the table.

Motion prevailed. Moved by Supervisor Stecker that the bill of Dr. Kenwarden be allowed at $50.00.

Supervisor Finn called to the chair. Supervisor Love resumed the chair. Supervisor Hastings moved as an amendment, that he (Dr. Kenwarden) be allowed forty dollars in full for said bill, to wit: Medical attendance for Mrs. Ames Pool, claimed $88.00. Allowed $40.00. The ayes and nays resulted in the adoption of the motion as amended as appears by the following vote:

Supervisors Dilley, Hastings, Hoyt, Jackson, Johnson, Stecker and Love voted aye, and Supervisor Finn voted nay.

Motion prevailed. Moved by Supervisor Hastings that the matter of improvements as recommended by the committee on county buildings be taken from the table.

Motion prevailed. Moved by Sup. Finn that the County buildings be instructed to make the improvements as set forth in their report and recommendation, that they let the job of making the improvements to the lowest responsible bidder, who shall give ample bonds for the completion of the same. Also that the Board of Supervisors: Your committee propose the services of some competent person to draft plans and specifications for the fulfillment of said and had the same under consideration and work.

The ayes and nays being called are as follows:

Claims No. 1. Jacob Stecker, building committee work, $9.25. 2. R. P. Forbes, for services as supt. of poor, 9.55. 3. G. M. E. Davis, sundries, 6.21. 4. O. J. Bell, postage and expressage, 2.75. 5. G. M. E. Davis, clerk hire, land sales, 17.50. 6. Henry Filley, witness fees, Tarbell case, 2.33. 7. T. W. Mitchell, " " " " 1.23. 8. J. E. Hughes, " " " " 1.23. 9. Charles Ferguson, " " " " 2.43. 10. D. P. Oakes, " " " " 1.47. 11. Chas. Purchase, " " " " 1.23. 12. Wm. A. Masters, stationery, 4.70. 13. James K. Bates, Justice fees, 5.13. 14. A. E. Newman, leveling sewer, 3.00. 15. Charles Jackson, committee work, 0.36. 16. Salling, Hanson & Co., supplies, 4.14. 17. O. J. Andrews, summoning jurors, 5.50. 18. O. Palmer, Justice fees, 14.32. 19. J. E. Bates, drawing jurors, 2.00. 20. J. E. Hume, Justice fees, 15.33. 21. " " " " 15.00. 22. E. Purchase, livery hire, 17.00. 23. G. W. Love, taking statistics, 5.00. 24. N. H. Traver, sundries, 4.65. 25. " " " " 50. 50.

We think the above bill (G. W. Love, No. 23) should be paid by the township. We also think that the county is basing too much burden in paying our sheriff's traveling fees and livery hire at the same time. We also return bills No. 2, and 17 back for correction, that is to be itemized.

MARKS DILLEY, W. C. JOHNSON, P. M. HOYT, Committee on claims.

Moved by Supervisor Finn that we adopt the report of the committee on claims and accounts, for bills numbered from 1 to 25 inclusive, except bills numbered 2, 5, 18, 20, 21 and 23.

Motion prevailed. Moved by Supervisor Jackson that we proceed to dispose of the bills numbered 2, 5, 18, 21 and 23.

Motion prevailed. Moved by Supervisor Jackson that the account of R. P. Forbes be referred back to be itemized.

Motion prevailed. Moved by Supervisor Finn that the bill of G. M. E. Davis be referred back to be itemized.

Motion prevailed. Moved by Supervisor Johnson that the bill of Oscar Palmer be allowed as charged.

Supervisor Finn called to the chair. Supervisor Love resumed the chair. The ayes and nays being called in the loss of the motion as appears by the following vote:

Supervisors Dilley, Jackson, Finn, Hoyt, Stecker, and Love voted aye, and Johnson and Hastings voted nay.

Moved by Supervisor Jackson that bills numbered 20 and 21 be allowed as charged.

Moved by Supervisor Finn that the bill of Oscar Palmer be allowed except the amount of $5.65, costs, in case of the people vs. Dunkle.

Motion prevailed. Moved by Supervisor Jackson that bill No. 23 be referred. Amended by Supervisor Hastings that the bill be allowed at $3.00, being pay in full for taking farm statistics and census in the township of Center Plains.

Motion as amended prevailed. Moved by Supervisor Hastings that we now proceed to canvass the votes on the county loan, resulting as follows:

Center Plains, For the loan, 1. Against the loan, 66. Beaver Creek, 18. 21. Grove, 8. 21. Ball, 25. 25. Grayling, 51. 67. South Branch, 1. 60. Fredericville, 1. 51. Maple Forest, 6. 34.

Thereupon on motion of Supervisor Finn the board adjourned until 1 o'clock this afternoon.

(TO BE CONTINUED NEXT WEEK.)

The Wickspe, says: Reiterating exploded libels will not secure success for doctrines that would beggar American laborers, and threaten American industries, and November will witness the endorsement by millions of thoughtful honest toilers, of the Planned Knight and the Black Eagle.

The lumber trade in Chicago is reported to be in better condition than it has been for some time. Congress has adjourned is the reason for the improvement. There will be no tinkering with the tariff before next winter to disarrange prices.

Political Terms.

Cleveland and Hendricks. Where is the "soldier element?" Arkansas republicans will put no ticket in the field at present.

A greenback county convention will be held at Port Huron July 26. A colored Blaine and Logan club has been organized at Jackson.

Gens. Butler, Sherman, Logan and Slocum will deliver addresses at the Soldiers and Sailors' Reunion at Battle Creek in August.

A report has been circulated that Hon. H. M. Lord was out of the race for congressional honors, those who imagine that to be the case will be surprised when they reach the convention. Instead of being withdrawn, his strength is steadily increasing, and the prospect is that he will get there.

The Albany Journal, says: "If the republican party has yet a mission to fulfill it has shown wisdom in the selection of a candidate who has been unwavering in his obedience to its decisions, and powerful in the championship of its settled policies. If there is need of honesty, vigor, leadership and capacity in the chief executive, those qualities will be applied in the triumphant election of that candidate to the office of president."

The Boston Herald gives some sound advice to the independents of that state. It shows them the indisputable fact that the west is the ruling power of the country, that it made the nominations in spite of the puny efforts of the independents, and that it can elect Blaine and Logan in spite of all they can do. Also that the ruling sentiment of Massachusetts, without back them, and that if they stand out, their last end will be more ridiculous than the first.

The New York Times remarks: We advise the opponents of Mr. Blaine, of whatever stripe, to let alone the question of his proclivities and sympathies in one direction or another. Efforts are being made to show that Mr. Blaine is a bigoted Protestant, who has made unfair attacks in politics upon the Catholics, and like efforts to show that he was born in the Catholic church and is still attached to it. So far as concerns Mr. Blaine's personal belief in religion it is no one else's business. There is no sense or justice in dragging in the question of religion. The American people have gotten on so far with very little admixture of religious political feeling, and it is better they should continue to do so.

Subscribers for the AVALANCHE.

Old soldiers please remember July 30.
J. O. Hadley has a fine residence in process of erection, on Ogden street.
Mr. Rogers is building a good house on the south side.
A new post of the G. A. R. was mustered at Battle Creek, July 12th.

Crops in Frederic township are said to be looking finely.
Fredericvillians celebrated the 4th by attending a ball.

Mr. and Mrs. Denn, of Frederic, have a young daughter.
J. S. Harrington and family have gone to Midland for a visit.

A good lake boat 16 feet long, nearly new, for sale cheap by Mrs. P. Kelley.

The reunion of the old soldiers and sailors at Battle Creek, will be held on the old fair grounds in August.

Mr. Sorenson has a new house started on the south side in place of the one destroyed by fire.

Mr. N. Michelson and family have returned from their western trip and report a pleasant time.

M. I. Jensen is erecting a fine residence on Peninsula Avenue. Why is this?

The G. A. R. boys of Kalkaska, intend to hold an encampment at that place, August 15th and 16th.

Communications from Beaver Creek and Fredericville are crowded out this week but will appear next.

W. A. Masters has built a good house on the s. e. 1/4 of sec. 8, in this township, which is nearly completed.

The attention of our readers is called to the new ad. of E. D. Robinson. A look at his vegetable stand is a pleasant sight.

The Rev. G. O. Dalgleish, of the Isle of Wight, England, has accepted a call from the Congregational Church at Roscommon.

Rev. Wm. Putnam will preach at the hall, next Sabbath, morning and evening, usual hours. All are cordially invited to attend.

A window in a place of business near the railroad looks like if a bovine of the male gender had went through it.

Be sure to ask your druggist for Hill's English Extract of Buchu and Cubebs, as that is the only reliable Kidney medicine offered to the public.

Roscommon voted $200 to its band for weekly concerts, the village president, and the council compromised at $100.

Miss Laura Sutherland, who will be remembered by our people, as a former preceptress in our school, is the guest of Mrs. D. London, at the lake.

Business boometh! Taylor has begun doubling the size of his store to accommodate the needs of his tenant, Jos. Edgumbe.

Huckleberries are being brought in to market, but the crop will be lighter than last year, as the frost injured them in some localities.

The J. E. Potts lumber company are building two saws 10x64 feet to carry railroad iron down the river to a point where they are putting in a logging road.

A. H. Herron, "Traveling Man," of the Detroit Post and Tribune, called on us yesterday. He reports business as flourishing, and Blaine and Logan stock a booming.

The editor of the Leader at Kalkaska, will not announce additions to their population without a copy of the notice. Goodidea. He must have received a Paragon from the booming notice he gave an 81b. girl last week.

Chas. H. Williams, living near Otsego, tried to kill his father and other friends, and then fled to the swamp. He was deranged or we should wish that he might be captured by the Muskegoners.

John Mitchell caught a regulation ball on the fly a few days since. He caught it exactly on his throat and says he likes the old way the best. Fears of serious injury were at first entertained.

The editor of the Vanderbilt Review is getting more than his share of the good things of this world. Last week he was presented with a bouquet, a fine string of fish and six quarts of strawberries. His call of the previous week was certainly a successful one.

Mrs. Sarah A. Collins of Lapeer, an experienced dressmaker, skilled in cutting and fitting all kinds of ladies' apparel, arrived in Grayling on the 11th inst., and is at present the guest of Mrs. Cassin on the "south side," where she will be pleased to meet those wishing her services.

The Kalkaska Leader says that a young man named J. B. Hammond, aged 17 years, whose relatives and former residence is unknown, died at that place a short time since and requests exchanges to call attention to the matter, so that his friends may learn of his demise.

The fourth and last quarterly meeting of this conference year will be held in the M. E. Church on next Sabbath, July 20th. Preaching morning and evening by Rev. P. J. Wright, of Gaylord. Sabbath supper will be administered after evening service.

"Tis wrong to beat the merchant out of his honest dues; 'tis wrong to beat the poor old cobbler out of his boots and shoes; and there is a chance of pardon for him who steals your wood or coal, but he who cheats the printer will surely lose his soul." Delinquents will please take notice and pay up before it is too late.

W. O. Bradford and C. R. Salisbury, of Medina, Ohio, arrived in the city last week with Mr. Bradford's team, tools, stock and household effects. He has located on sec. 4, town 27, n. 2 w., where he will at once proceed to make a home. Mr. Salisbury will locate in that vicinity. Both are ex-soldiers, and welcome to Crawford County.

The VETERAN, published at Lansing, Mich., announces that after Aug. 1st, it will be published weekly, instead of semi-monthly as heretofore, while its subscription price will remain at $1.00 per year. The Veteran is earnestly devoted to the boys of '61 to '65, and their heirs. It is a grand success, and every old soldier should take it. Address: The Veteran Publishing Co., Lansing, Mich.

We had the pleasure, last Friday, of assisting Commander Taylor and comrades, of Doors Post of Gaylord, and Commander Bell of this city, in mustering Lyons Post No. 263 G. A. R. at Vanderbilt. A portion of the service was public and their new and spacious hall was well filled. After the ceremony, about two hours were spent in camp-fire style, singing the old songs, and if there were any present who did not thoroughly enjoy it we are at a loss to know who they were.

Bro. Miles of the Vanderbilt Review is a tough one. His office was struck by lightning tearing one corner off the building into splinters. His boy two years old was thrown across the room by the stroke; afterwards ate a box of pills, fell down stairs, tumbled off the balcony, pied a case of type and ran away. Yet the editor continues his labors as unconcerned as an iceberg and gives the citizens of that thriving village a five paper that deserves the fullest success.

Some Ohio parties have completed arrangements to put up a right mill at Bellaire. We wish some Ohio party would arrange to put one up in Grayling. Splendid prospect for a fine field of wheat to the acre in this county, and no mill to grind it. The average wheat here doubled this fall if the building of a mill was only well under way. Is the Grayling Improvement Association dead, or is it only sleeping?

Blodgett & Byrne, the big lumbermen, will establish an office at Grayling soon. They own several thousand acres of land near this town on which there is an immense amount of valuable pine, into which they will extend their logging railroad which is now 12 miles long, running from Higgins lake in this direction, banking their logs into Higgins lake for the Muskegon market.

Mr. A. H. Swarthout and family will leave here next week to take up their residence in Saginaw. During their residence here, Mr. Swarthout has built up a lucrative business and strict attention thereto, has won hosts of friends, as proven by the honors conferred. He was elected prosecuting attorney two years ago, overcoming the strongest democratic opposition, and this year was a delegate to the State Convention at Grand Rapids, where he was elected alternate to the National Convention at Chicago. A staunch republican, and we believe an honest hearted christian gentleman. We wish him success in his new field.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE.

The Drama of "Ten Nights in a Bar Room."

Will be presented to our citizens, by the ROSCOMMON BAND, on Tuesday Evening, July 23d, '84.

It will be an Evening's Entertainment which all will find pleasure in attending. They have rehearsed it many times, and have become masters of their parts, so that our citizens will be enabled to witness a fine presentation of that thrilling and instructive drama.

We give the cast of characters as presented at Roscommon on the Evening of July 4th.

JOE McFARLANE, Frank Carpenter, Simon Slade, A. Cross, Frank Slade, Art Gifford, Harvey Green, W. W. Vaughn, Willie Hammond, Charles Carpenter, Melville Gifford, Miss Jennie Oles, Mrs. Slade, Miss Belle Carpenter, Mrs. Morgan, Miss Maggie Martin, Mary Morgan, Miss Maggie Martin.

MARRIED.

On the 3d inst. by W. Haynes J. P. of Beaver Creek township, EUGENE S. ROGERS, of Beaver Creek and Miss SUSANAH GILBERT, of Center Plains.

DIED.

On the 11th inst. in Grayling, Clara, daughter of Perry and Elizabeth Osterlander, aged eleven weeks, after an illness of twenty-one days.

An angel plucked a flower away. To rest she went on high, And bore her to immortal bowers. To bloom amidst God's fairest flowers.

A FRIEND.

ROLLER GRAIN DRILL.

Appreciating the needs of our farmers in the line of agricultural implements, particularly suited to our soil, I have obtained the agency for the Roller Grain Drill, manufactured by Beckwith & Lee, of Downport, Mich. I first proved my faith by purchasing one for use in my own farm, which can be seen there, or full description can be had at this office. I believe it to be just what we want for our loose soil, and far superior to the old-fashioned drill.
